"Armistice Wilson 14 Pts." YouTube. YouTube, 11 Jan. 2011. Web. 28 Jan. 2013.
<<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rsUSXJdfayo>>

4 minutes video on 3 professors talking about president Woodrow Wilson's 14 points to peace and establishment of the League of Nations. This source has no limitations.

"Article 1.4." Charter of the United Nations. United Nations, n.d. Web.
<<http://www.un.org/en/documents/charter/chapter1.shtml>>.

This is the official charter of the United Nations. This charter was originally used as international laws that countries have to follow. I used this charter in the video of "Yeon-Pyong Island Bombard" video that North Korea cannoning South Korea was violating the charter of the United Nations directly. This source is not limited because it is an official international law from the United Nations.

Bajornas, Rick. Ban Ki-Moon at General Assembly, UN. 2013. Photograph. UN News Center, n.p.

This picture was taken at the general assembly of Ban Ki-Moon, Secretary General of United Nations. This picture was used as a picture describing the situation in the news of "UN News Center". I used this picture in a sub tab, "United Nations", describing the quote. This is not limited considering that it is from the United Nations.

Edward, O'Donnell T. Turning Points in American History. Prof. Edward T. O'Donnell. The Teaching Company, 2011. MP3.

An 30 minutes long audio file on a professor discussing about Albert Einstein's letter to FDR and the Manhattan Project. This file was given from our teacher, so I'm believing this is a good source.

"Firstworldwar.com." First World War.com. N.p., n.d. Web. 28 Jan. 2013.
<http://www.firstworldwar.com/source/fourteenpoints_hertling2.htm>

This is a short speech of Count Hertling's reaction toward Woodrow Wilson's speech. Website states that this is a primary source document, but it's unclear whether this website is reliable or not. This source was used to find quote.

"George C. Marshall: quote on the Marshall Plan." American History. ABC-CLIO, 2013. Web. 28 Jan. 2013. <<http://americanhistory.abc-clio.com/Search/Display/264447?terms=Marshall+Plan>>

Short quote from George C. Marshall's talk on Marshall Plan in Harvard University. It was found under government document, therefore it doesn't have limitations.

"Growth in United Nations Membership, 1945-present." Member States. United Nations, n.d. Web.

This is from one of the United Nations' official website, but to inform when the other countries earn the membership. The purpose of this information was to inform people who want to know about the exact date of when the members have joined. I used this as one of the source of the world map showing countries with United Nations' membership, and how many countries officially have joined. Since it is United Nations' official statistics, it is not limited.

"Harry Truman: quote on communism and democracy." American History. ABC-CLIO, 2013. Web. 28 Jan. 2013.<<http://americanhistory.abc-clio.com/Search/Display/266101?terms=Truman>>

Short quote from president Truman's talk on communism and democracy. This source doesn't have limitations.

Korean Armistice Agreement (1953)." Video. National Archives. American History. ABC-CLIO, 2013. 14 Jan. 2013.

This is a video of when both forces were signing the armistice agreement to stop the Korean War, and it is also how the Korean war ended. This video isn't really biased, because it shows both forces signing.

"Korean Armistice Agreement (1953)." American History. ABC-CLIO, 2013. Web. 21 Jan. 2013.

This site provided me the whole entire armistice agreement. It isn't really biased, because it is just a piece of document that both forces agreed one. We've used this source on the website by having a link that takes you directly to the whole Korean Armistice Agreement.

Korea during 1945- 1947. National Archive, n.d. ABC CLIO. Web. 8 Nov. 2012.
<<http://americanhistory.abc-clio.com/Search/Display/296277?terms=Korean+War>>.

It's a newsreel that was broadcasted around 1950s. It shows what happened after Korea got free from Japanese occupation. Author's purpose was simply summarized what happened during 1945-1947, therefore it has limitations of accurate data. It includes short section about US-USSR Joint commission which is very rare.

"Mao Announcing The Establishment of PRC." YouTube. YouTube, 14 May 2007. Web. 28 Jan. 2013.

This video is about when Mao announced the establishment of the People Republic of China. It has limitations, because it is short, it only has the part when Chairman Mao declared that PRC was established.

"Mobilization of troops for Korean War." Video. National Archives. American History. ABC-CLIO, 2013. Web. 23 Jan. 2013.

This is a short clip of mobilization of troops for Korean war, it includes a little speech that was given by President Truman. This source is limited, because it doesn't talk about how the troops were established and it is biased, because it has nothing about North Korea.

"Newstalgia Reference Room - The Moscow Conference 1945. | Newstalgia." Newstalgia. N.p., n.d. Web. 28 Jan. 2013.
<<http://newstalgia.crooksandliars.com/gordonskene/newstalgia-reference-room-moscow-confe>>

This is a long quote of Secretary of State James F. Byrnes from Moscow conference. Limitation is that this quote shows only US's opinion towards the conference and joint commission to Korea.

"North Korean invasion of South Korea." Video. National Archives. American History. ABC-CLIO, 2013. Web. 23 Jan. 2013.

This is short of North Korea invasion of South Korea. It is biased, because it says how North Korea invaded South Korea first. This source was used to prove North Korea started the war first. It can be found under the Korean War tab.

"Potsdam Conference 1945." YouTube. YouTube, 31 May 2011. Web. 28 Jan. 2013.
<<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3CYUh16AHik>>

5 minutes long video on Potsdam Conference, not only contains information on the conference but also contains president Truman's short speech when he arrived to Potsdam. This source has no limitations.

"Remarks at Korea Society Dinner Commemorating the 60th Anniversary of the Korean War." UN News Center. United Nations, 2 June 2010. Web.
<http://www.un.org/apps/news/infocus/sgspeeches/statments_full.asp?statID=839#.UQZ9V6G4EiV>.

This document was speech of Ban Ki-Moon, Secretary General of United Nations at the anniversary dinner party of the Korean War. The purpose of this speech was to inform people about the event. I used this website to use a quote of Ban Ki-Moon. This was not limited considering Ban Ki-Moon's social position as Secretary General of United Nations, and this document is from the UN News Center.

South Korea. Ministry of Unification. History of the Reunion of the Separated Families. Ministry of Unification, n.d. Web. <<http://blog.unikorea.go.kr/1272>>.

This is official website of Korean government about the unification history between North and South's separated families. The purpose of the website was to indicate people the history. I used this as the date that they had a meeting and the official document of "North and South's Joint Declaration" in the "Relationship" section. This is not limited because it is proved document from Korean government.

"The Berlin Blockade (10m)." YouTube. YouTube, 07 Mar. 2011. Web. 28 Jan. 2013.
<<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rsUSXJdfayo>>

10 minutes long vide on Berlin Blockade, starting from splitting Berlin and up to the end of the blockade. Contains many different videos about Berlin Blockade. It does not miss any critical information and it does not have any limitations.

"The Collapse of the League of Nations." YouTube. YouTube, 17 Apr. 2009. Web. 27 Jan. 2013.

This clip provided us the failure of League of Nations. It gives possible reasons on why it collapsed. It is limited, because for the whole clip it talks about how League of Nations failed. It is biased, because of the perspective it has on the reasons why League of Nations failed.

"Truce Is Signed, Ending The Fighting In Korea; P.O.W. Exchange Near; Rhee Gets U.S. Pledge; Eisenhower Bids Free World Stay Vigilant." The New York Times. N.p., n.d. Web. 21 Jan. 2013.

On this site, we found a newspaper on how the Korean War had ended. It isn't biased, because it's about the truce between North and South Korea. It has limitations, because we can only see the headline of the newspaper clearly.

"Truman Doctrine/Marshall Plan." Video. National Archives. American History. ABC-CLIO, 2013. Web. 28 Jan. 2013. <<http://americanhistory.abc-clio.com/Search/Display/299935?terms=Marshall+Plan>>

2 minutes long newsreel on the Marshall Plan. This is a primary source document and it does not have any limitations.

Truman, Harry. "Truman Doctrine." Speech. American History. Web. <<http://americanhistory.abc-clio.com/Search/Display/255193?terms=truman+doctrine>>.

This site gave us the whole speech by President Truman about the Truman Doctrine. It had helped us with knowing where to crop the video of the Truman Doctrine, since the audio in the video isn't really clear. It is obviously biased, because it is only about what United States.

"Truman discusses Korea Policy in 1951." Video. National Archives. American History. ABC-CLIO, 2013. Web. 17 Jan. 2013"

This is a short video of Truman speaking what to deal with Korea next. In the very last part of the video, Truman Declared to help Korea till the end. It is limited, because it doesn't explain much what Truman was going to do in the future.

United Nations Secretary General, Ban Ki-Moon's Speech at the National Assembly of Korea. By SaeYee Kim. Perf. Ban Ki-Moon. MBC, 2012. Online News.

A Korean broadcasting corporation filmed this video. This is made to record the speech of Ban Ki-Moon, the United Nations' Secretary General in the Korea National Assembly. I used this video as the United Nations' perspective about how is they planning to solve remained conflicts between North and South Korea. Considering that Ban Ki-Moon has his social statues, this speech was not limited.

UN Security Council Mulls New Sanctions against N. Korea. Perf. United Nations. Arirang News, 2013. Online News.

This video was filmed in the online newspaper corporation called "Arirang" to inform people about how United Nations passed a resolution that is about to warn North Korea with their nuclear weapons and rocket experiment with the last agree of China who was supporting North Korea. I used it as the United Nations' perspective to continue to take the responsibility of their unsolved conflict between North Korea. This may not be limited because it was an official news, but online.

"U.N. Security Council Slams North Korea, Expands Sanctions." CNN (Cable News Network), 24 Jan. 2013. Web.
<<http://edition.cnn.com/2013/01/22/world/asia/security-council-north-korea/index.html?iref=allsearch>>.

This website was a newsto inform people about United Nations' sanction against North Korea's nuclear experiment and rocket launch. I used this news as a quote of how did the resolution passed and how it will impact to the world. This is not limited considering CNN is a reliable source as one of the greatest broadcasting corporation in the World.

"U.S.-U.S.S.R. Joint Commission on Korea. (1945 - 1948)." Research.archives.gov. N.p., n.d. Web. 28 Jan. 2013.
<<http://webcache.googleusercontent.com/search?q=cache:http://research.archives.gov/organization/1183134>>

3 paragraph long writing about events from the Moscow conference to UN's action to North Korea's invasion. This source was found is research.archives.gov which is a very reliable source.

"Upload Images." World Map of the Cold War [1427x628]. N.p., n.d. Web. 28 Jan. 2013.
<<http://imgur.com/Ah9tS>>

Image of a world map of the cold war in 1950s. Limitation is that this image might be missing some detail since it's trying to show lot of information in a single picture.

"Warren Harding: Return to Normalcy speech (1921)." American History. ABC-CLIO, 2013. Web. 28 Jan. 2013. <<http://americanhistory.abc-clio.com/Search/Display/254382?terms=league+of+nations+failure>>

Warren Harding's speech was used to find quotes for evidence of the league's failure. This source doesn't have limitations because it is government documentary.

Who Started the Korean War. Mok-Lan Video, 2009. DVD.

A North Korean video company made this film. This is made to let people know who actually started the Korean War, which is to not get blamed for it. From this film, I found 3 clips, which is about the perspective of North Korea toward the Korea War. Completely different viewpoint of North Korea, the reason why they picked June 26th as their invade date, and blames to American and Japan as the starter of the war. Additionally, 3 quotes for North Korea blaming the division of Korea to Japan, which was the actual cause of the Korean War. Also, they blame U.S for all the damage that they had, and made it sounds like U.S was the invader. It was not a reliable fact in the way that they are blaming the other countries when it was actually North Korea who invaded South Korea first. We can consider their idea, but cannot trust completely.

"Woodrow Wilson: Fourteen Points speech (1918)." American History. ABC-CLIO, . Web. 28 Jan. 2013. <<http://americanhistory.abc-clio.com/Search/Display/255282?terms=Woodrow+wilson+14>>

This document is government document of Woodrow Wilson's 14 points to maintaining world peace speech. Since it's government document, it's highly reliable and it was used to find quote.

"Woodrow Wilson: quote on League of Nations membership." American History. ABC-CLIO, 2013. Web. 28 Jan. 2013. <<http://americanhistory.abc-clio.com/Search/Display/1791431?terms=league+of+nations>>

This document was a database that was to have a speech about State of the Union. I used this document as a quote. This is not limited because it is from a database.

"Dwight D. Eisenhower: State of the Union message (1958)." American History. ABC-CLIO, 2013. Web. 28 Jan. 2013.

This document is from a database, written to have a speech about State of the Union. I used this as a quote to show American perspective to keep the peace. Otherwise, the starter of a war will damage themselves the most. It is not limited because it is from a database.

"Future of Korea." CQ Researcher Online. CQ Press, 19th May 2000. Web.
<<http://library.cqpress.com/cqresearcher/document.php?id=cqresrr2000051900&type=query&num=john+oh>>.

This document is from a database. This was firstly written to estimate what would Korea's future be as an anniversary of the Korean War. I used this document to 2 quotes saying North Korea's invitation to South Korea to have an official meeting North Korea was used in the 'Relationship' section. This document was reliable because it was from one of the databases.

"George W. Bush: State of the Union message (2003)." American History. ABC-CLIO, 2013. Web. 28 Jan. 2013.

This document is from a database. This was written as the speech about the State of the Union. I used this as a quote of George W. Bush. This is not limited considering it was from a database.

"Harry Truman: State of the Union message (1952)." American History. ABC-CLIO, 2013. Web. 28 Jan. 2013.

This is the speech about the State of the Union. The purpose of this writing was to inform people about how the country is going, and what does Truman think about the situation. I used this website as a quote. This source is not limited because it is from a database and talks about U.S., so no concerns are required about bias.

"Incheon Yeon-Pyong Island Bombard." Joong Ahng Il Bo, 23 Nov. 2010. Web.

It is a video of Yeon-Pyong Island by a newspaper network. The purpose of this video was to let the readers understand better with the simulation how North Korea cannoned the Island with 130 cannon bombs. I used this news as a video explaining the situation of the Yeon-Pyong Island, and how it affected to the relationship of the two Koreas. It is not limited because it was from a reliable news corporation.

Lee, Katz M. "World Peacekeeping." CQ Researcher Online. CQ Press, Apr. 2007. Web
<<http://library.cqpress.com/globalresearcher/document.php?id=cqrglobal2007040000&type=query&num=United+Nations+as+an+international+organization>>.

This is a database about United Nations described as one of the international world peacekeepers. The purpose of the document was to explain about the history and the current situation of the world peacekeeping. I used this website to find two quotes about North and South Korea's relationship. It is not limited because it is from the database.

"Out in the Cold: Australia's Involvement in the Korean War." Australian War Memorial. N.p., n.d. Web. 23 Jan. 2013.

This is a website made by Australian government. This site provided us maps during the Korean War, like how the invasion worked. These pictures are used for the Korean War page. This sites has limitations, because it only provides the basic maps on the war, it doesn't have the complicated ones like how Seoul was taken by different forces so many times.

Shim, WonSeop. "President Lee Myung-Bak's Speech to the Nation About Chun-An Fleet Incident." CNB News 24 May 2010: n. pag. Print.

This is the online news about South Korean president, Lee Myung-Bak having a speech about the Chun-An Fleet incident. This is written to inform people about what he has said. I used part of his speech as a quote to describe what does a South Korean president think about North and South's relationship. It may be limited considering it is listening to only one side, South Korea.

South Korea. National Archives of Korea. President Archives. President Roh Tae-Woo. N.p., n.d. Web. <http://www.pa.go.kr/online_contents/onlinerecord/onlinerecord07/onlinerecord076/1297897_5711.html>.

South Korea. South Korean Navy. Chun-An Fleet Torpedo Incident. South Korean Navy, n.d. Web. <http://www.navy.mil.kr/sub_guide/navy_pds.jsp?menu=1&smenu=8>.

This website was written to record the historic events in marines. The purpose of this writing was to record and show citizens how tragic it was. I used this information to what happened in Chun-An Fleet. This is not limited because it didn't have any information about the culprit, but only the facts as how many deaths.

"The Korean War." BBC.co.uk. N.p., n.d. Web.

This website gave us the political of Truman holding "United Nations' hand" and running toward the Korean War and passing by the grave of League of Nations. This picture is biased, because it is obviously on South Korea's side, because it was supported by the United Nations and the United States.

The Oxford Dictionary of American Quotation. N.p.: Oxford Univ Pr (T), 2005. Print. "CBSNews.com."

CBSNews. CBS Interactive, n.d. Web. 12 Jan. 2013.

This website helped us with knowing the basics about the Korean War. It has a timeline and interactive maps. It does not have limitations, because it has information on both North and South Korea, and the maps are more specific.

Yeon-Pyong Do Provocation. By TaeHwa Kang. MBN News, 2010. Online News.

This is online news from Korean newspapers corporations. The purpose of this document was to inform people about what is going on, the state of the relationship, and extremity of the anxiety between the two countries. I used this as basic information about the attack and the amount of the damage. It is not limited because it was news where it is supposed to send out unbiased information, and not one sided, so the readers can see this more objectively.

"Why the League Failed." Johndclare, n.d. Web. 28 Jan. 2013.
<http://www.johndclare.net/league_of_nations8.htm>

It's a political cartoon describing League of Nations' failure. Limitation is that the quality of the image is not high, therefore you have to look closely to read the letter.

Yang, KiYong. "Chun-An Fleet Torpedo Incident." Chun-An Fleet Torpedo Incident. Seoulpost, 22 June 2012. Web.

It is a picture of Chun-An Fleet by a newspaper network. The purpose of this picture was to let the readers understand better with the picture. I used this website to have the picture of shipwrecked and pulled out Chun-An Fleet from the ocean. It is not limited because it was from a reliable news corporation.
